

ALETA

The LUTEC Aleta solar wall light in dark grey brings together solar technology and attractive modern styling to create a standout addition to any outdoor space. Its front-facing monocrystalline solar panel is designed to capture daylight efficiently, powering a warm white (3000K) glow that shines both upwards and downwards for a striking multi directional lighting effect. Delivering an impressive 1100 lumens, the Aleta offers bright, welcoming light that enhances entrances, pathways and garden areas with ease.
